International CREAN Conference 2020
Interdisciplinary and Intersectional Challenges
Childhood and Children’s Rights Studies

Date: 26-27 March 2020
Venue: University of Applied Sciences, Potsdam
Kiepenheuerallee 5, 14169 Potsdam, Germany

Programme:

Thursday, 26.3.2020

09.30 Arrival & Reception

09.45 Welcoming

Prof. Dr. Eva Schmitt-Rodermund, President University of Applied Sciences; Prof. Dr. Matthias Schreckenbach, Vice-Dean Faculty Educational and Social Sciences; Prof. Dr. Karl Hanson, Child Rights Centre, University of Geneva, Head of Steering Committee CREAN

10.00 Introductory Key Note: The transformative potential of intersectionality

Dr. Emilia Roig, Centre for Intersectional Justice, Berlin

10.45 Panel Discussion: Intersectional challenges to interdisciplinary children’s human rights studies

Dr. Noam Peleg, University of New South Wales, Dr. Emilia Roig, Centre for Intersectional Justice, Iven Saadi (dissens). Moderation: Prof. Dr. Kay Tisdall (University of Edinburgh)

11.30 Coffee, Gallery Walk

12.00 Parallel Sessions:

Children’s rights and intersectionality. Chair: Dr. Noam Peleg, University of New South Wales, Australia

Challenges for contemporary children’s rights studies. Chair: Prof. Dr. Natália Fernandes, University of Minho, Braga, Portugal

Structural and institutional discrimination, views from around the globe. Chair: Prof. Dr. Gordana Stankovska, University of Tetova, North Macedonia, Faculty of Philosophy, Institute of Psychology

Parenting, education and childhood. Chair: Prof. Dr. Anna Odrowąż-Coates, The Maria Grzegorzewska University and chairholder at the UNESCO/Janusz Korczak Chair in Social Pedagogy, Warsaw, Poland

Different practical and interdisciplinary research approaches to children’s studies. Chair: Dr. Urszula Markowska-Manista, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam, Germany/University of Warsaw, Poland

Child Friendly Cities. Chair: Brenda Weigel, MACR, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam, Germany
13.30 Lunch

14.30 Parallel Sessions:

- Children’s rights and intersectionality II. Chair: Dr. Caterina Rohde-Abuba, World Vision Germany
- Challenges for contemporary children’s rights studies II. Chair: Prof. Dr. Nevena Vučković Šahović
- Structural and institutional discrimination, views from around the globe II. Chair: Elizabeth Reiko Dieckermann, MACR
- Children’s rights between research and activism. Chair: Dr. Rebecca Budde, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam, Germany

Panel Session: Participation for Protection: Child-Centred Understandings and Responses to Violence Against Children. With Dr. Siobhán McAllister, Prof. Laura Lundy, Queens University Belfast, Ireland

15.30 Presentation and Ceremonial Book Award

Childhood and Children’s Rights Studies between Research and Activism.

Honouring the work of Prof. Dr. Manfred Liebel

Dr. Rebecca Budde & Dr. Urszula Markowska-Manista et al., Piano: Akihito Okuda

16.00 Coffee

16.30 Round Table with the Authors

Moderation: Dr. Urszula Markowska-Manista & Dr. Rebecca Budde

17.30 Key Note: Intersectional Discrimination of Children from a Decolonial View

Prof. Dr. Manfred Liebel

18:30 Wrap up Day 1

Prof. Dr. Kay Tisdall, University of Edinburgh, CREAN Steering Committee

Framing: Gallery of Research Posters (MA and PhD students)

Poster Sessions: 12.00-13.30 & 14.30-15.30

with Mary Ann Powell, University of Edinburgh and with MACR Thesis Supervisors
Friday, 27.3.2020

09.00 Welcoming

Dr. Roberta Ruggiero, University of Geneva, CREAN Academic Coordinator

09.15 Key Note: Reclaiming the future: With children this time.

Prof. Dr. Spyros Spyrou, European University Cyprus, School of Humanities, Social and Education Sciences, Dept. of Social and Behavioural Sciences

10.45 Coffee Break

11.15 Parallel Sessions:

Structural and institutional discrimination, views from around the globe III. Chair: Prof. Dr. Wouter Vandenhoeke, UNICEF Chair in Children’s Rights, University of Antwerp, Belgium

Parenting, education and childhood II. Chair: Sarah Bernhardt, MA Graduate, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam

Different practical and interdisciplinary research approaches to children’s studies. Chair: Dr. Urszula Markowska-Manista, University of Applied Sciences Potsdam/University of Warsaw, Poland

Postcolonial childhoods, colonising childhood & Gendered childhood and children’s rights, Chair: Rebecca Savage, MACR, University of Applied Sciences, Potsdam

Workshops

Workshop I: Co-creation and participation: one side of the same coin? Empowering professionals to involve children in policymaking. Ellen Van Vooren, KeKi (Children’s Rights Knowledge Center)

12.45 Plenary/Round Table: Conceptualizations of Global Norms and Local Realities, interdisciplinary and intersectional challenges for children’s rights studies

Prof. Dr. Nevena Vučković Šahović, Prof. Dr. Wouter Vandenhoeke; Prof. Dr. Ton Lieefard, University of Leiden. Moderation: Maria Centrone, MACR

13.30 Wrap up/End

Prof. Dr. Karl Hanson, Dr. Rebecca Budde & Dr. Urszula Markowska-Manista

Lunch / Buffet

14:15- 16:00 CREAN General Assembly Meeting